

FRESNO COUNTY COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER NETWORK

Community Health Workers (CHWs) or Promotores(as) provide care coordination services to residents of Fresno County at no-cost!

REFERRALS TO SERVICES

SERVICES IN MULTIPLE LANGUAGES

NO-COST TO YOU

- ✓ Adult Education
- ✓ Developmental Referral
- ✓ Job Employment
- ✓ Family Planning
- ✓ Food Security
- ✓ Health Coverage
- ✓ Housing
- ✓ Immunization Referral
- ✓ Health Education
- ✓ Medical Home
- ✓ Medical Referral
- ✓ Medication Screening, Adherence, and Reconciliation
- ✓ Mental Health
- ✓ Oral Health
- ✓ Postpartum
- ✓ Pregnancy
- ✓ Social Service Referral
- ✓ Substance Use
- ✓ Transportation

The Fresno County Department of Public Health (FCDPH) is committed to protecting all personal information provided.

CONTACT US NOW!

HEALTHY
FRESNO COUNTY
Better Together

559-600-6449

CHWNetwork@fresnocountyca.gov

MEET OUR CHW NETWORK PARTNERS!

Aria Community Health Center is a federally qualified and licensed primary care clinic that provides Medical, Dental, Optometry and Specialty Care for underserved communities.

 (559) 867-4000

Centro Binacional para el Desarrollo Indígena Oaxaqueño was created by and for Indigenous communities in rural California to organize and assure communities' culture, languages, and knowledge are recognized and respected.

 (559) 499-1178

Fresno HOPE (Health, Outreach, Prevention, Equity) supports residents within Fresno County to improve their overall health by connecting to community health workers.

 (559) 257-2522

Reading and Beyond offers comprehensive, tailored case management and two-generational programming with children and families to strengthen education, health, and well-being.

 (559) 342-8600