Dear Fresno County Board of Supervisors,

I write to you all to express my deepest concern with the map you are considering to be the map all Fresno County Residents will have to live with for the next 10 years.

As a lower-income resident residing in the Tarpey neighborhood of Clovis, I feel that my community of interest will be diluted by the interests of wealthier parts of Clovis, Sunnyside, and that rural differences elsewhere in the district. My community, as previously mentioned and on the record, has more in common with Mayfair and other urban Fresno areas. Therefore I ask that you consider a different map that will uplift my community and take into account the Latino majority that is blatant in this county.

Thank you,
