COUNTY CLERK/REGISTRAR OF VOTERS

BRANDI L. ORTH

Presidential Primary Election Statistics County of Fresno

May 27, 2020

The March 2020 election was the first Fresno County election under the Voters Choice Act. The County had 53 vote centers and 43 drop boxes equitably distributed throughout the County. 10 vote centers were open for 11 days, February 22 through March 3; 43 additional vote centers were open for 4 days, February 29 through March 3. Every active registered voter received a ballot in the mail. Generally, the process went well with the exception of connectivity issues related to the state system during the morning hours on Election Day. These issues were resolved fairly quickly.

Here are some general statistics with details in the attached reports.
