

Fresno County Probation Department

Kirk Haynes, Chief Probation Officer

PRESS RELEASE

February 5, 2024

THE PROBATION DEPARTMENT OFFERS FIRST-EVER JUVENILE CORRECTIONAL OFFICER ORIENTATION FOR INTERESTED APPLICANTS

The Fresno County Probation Department is holding its first-ever Juvenile Correctional Officer (JCO) Orientation at 4pm on February 28, 2024. The JCO Orientation provides interested applicants a unique opportunity to interact with current staff, tour the Juvenile Justice Campus, and learn about the JCO career path and benefits.

The Department is seeking individuals who are interested in a career with the Probation Department and have a passion and interest in working with youth and making a difference in their lives. The goal of the in-person orientation is to provide interested individuals an opportunity to learn about the position and facilities and encourage those interested in an exciting and challenging career to apply for the JCO position through continuous recruitment.

Applicants need to be at least 18 years of age and must complete a security screening as part of the selection process for the JCO Orientation.

The QR code on the attached flier links directly to the application for this open continuous recruitment and provides information on the job description, salary, and benefits.

For more information, contact Assistant Deputy Chief David Rodriguez, (559) 600-1299
