SATURDAY VOTING DAY ON JUNE 2, 2018 Making voting even more convenient!

FRESNO, CA. May 30, 2018 – The 2018 Statewide Primary Election is Tuesday, June 5, 2018. In California, registered voters may cast their ballots at their County Elections Department beginning 29 days before each election, including the Saturday before the election.

Fresno County Clerk Brandi Orth said “For the convenience of Fresno County voters, the Elections Department will be open for this Saturday, June 2, 2018, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for those wishing to cast their votes on this SATURDAY VOTING DAY.”

Fresno County residents, who are registered to vote, or want to register, may do so every week day up to and including Election Day, Tuesday, June 5th or on Saturday, June 2nd, at the Fresno County Elections Department located at 2221 Kern Street in downtown Fresno.

Orth reminded voters, “Every vote counts. Be sure and vote!”
