Nothing in Chapter 5, Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code shall preclude a person from filing a fictitious business name statement in a county other than that where the principal place of business is located, as long as the requirements of this section are also met. If your principal place of business is not in Fresno County, a proof of filing in the principal place of business is required. If your principal place of business is not in this state, a proof of filing with the Clerk of Sacramento County is required.

Business and Professions Code Section 17917

Publication for Original, New Filings (renewal with change in facts from previous filing), or Refile

- (a) Within 45 days after a fictitious business name statement has been filed, the registrant shall cause it to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the fictitious business name statement was filed or, if there is no such newspaper in that county, in a newspaper of general circulation in an adjoining county. If the registrant does not have a place of business in this state, the notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Sacramento County. The publication must be once a week for four successive weeks and an affidavit of publication must be filed with the county clerk where the fictitious business name statement was filed within 45 days after the completion of the publication.
- (b) If a refiling is required because the prior statement has expired, the refiling need not be published, unless there has been a change in the information required in the expired statement, provided the refiling is filed within 40 days of the date the statement expired.

Business and Professions Code Section 17922

Abandonment of Fictitious Business Name

- (a) Upon ceasing to transact business in this state under a fictitious business name that was filed in the previous five years, a person who has filed a fictitious business name statement shall file a statement of abandonment of use of fictitious business name. The statement shall be executed and published in the same manner as a fictitious business name statement and shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which the person has filed his or her fictitious business name statement.

Business and Professions Code Section 17930

Any person who executes, files, or publishes any statement under this chapter, knowing that such statement is false, in whole or in part, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Disclaimer

The office of the County Clerk assumes no responsibility for interpretation of statutes affecting the fictitious business name statement. See Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17900), Part 3 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code.

B&P SECTION 17900: The purpose of this section is to protect those dealing with individuals or partnerships doing business under fictitious names, and is not intended to confer any right or advantage on individuals or firms that fail to comply with the law. The filing of a fictitious business name certificate is designed to make available to the public the identities of persons doing business under the fictitious name.

DEFINITIONS OF A FICTITIOUS BUSINESS NAME

For Individuals: A name that does not include the surname of the individual. A name that suggests existence of an additional owner (such as "Company," & Company" "Sons" "& Associates" "Brothers," but not the words that merely describe the business being conducted).

For Partnerships: or other associations of persons. A name that does not include the surname of each general partner or name that suggests existence of additional owners (such as "Company," "Brothers," etc.) in the case of an unincorporated association other than a partnership, a "Z" general partner" means a person whose liability in the business is substantially the same as a general partner.

For Corporations: A name not stated in its articles of incorporation.

Organizations Not Included: Non-profit corporations or associations such as churches, labor unions, fraternal and charitable organizations, etc., and real estate investment trusts with permits under Section 23002 of the Government Code which have statements on file designating agent for service of process.

PUBLICATION

Within 45 days after the statement is filed, the registrant will publish it in a newspaper of general circulation in the county and the business area in which the principal place of business is located. The newspaper will publish the Fictitious Name Statement once a week for four consecutive weeks. Within 45 days of the completion of the publication an affidavit must be filed with the Fresno County Clerk.

EXPIRATION

The fictitious Name Statement will expire five years after the date of filing the original application. In order to continue reserving the Business Name a new statement must be filed before the expiration date. The fee for renewing a Fictitious Name Statement is the same as for filing a new Fictitious Name Statement. Renewing a statement does not require publication if there are no changes in the facts from the previous application. A statement also expires when it is abandoned.

ABANDONMENTS

A person who has filed a statement shall, upon ceasing to transact business in this state under that Fictitious name, file a STATEMENT OF ABANDONMENT, publish same and file an affidavit of publication with the County Clerk. Forms are available at the County Clerk's office.

WITHDRAWAL OF GENERAL PARTNER

A general partner of a partnership having a statement on file may file a STATEMENT OF WITHDRAWAL OF PARTNERSHIP, publish and file an affidavit of publication with the County Clerk. This may be done as long as it does not change the status of the original filing. Publication is not required if dissolution of the partnership has been published pursuant to the Corporation Code. Forms are available at the County Clerk's office.

FEEES

The fee for filing a new Fictitious Name Statement or filing a Renewal is $35.00 for the first business name + one owner; $7.00 for each additional business name or partner. Filing a Statement of Abandonment or a Withdrawal of Partnership is $17.00.
